We have been watching you for some time now. We have files, photographs, and records of activity that we suspect you would prefer remain private.

You have 72 hours to transfer 100 bars of gold to the following address:

b151a8813cc407534c4ee1f985c18f42

Once payment is confirmed, everything we have will be permanently deleted and you will never hear from us again. Fail to pay, and copies will be sent to your employer, your family, and the relevant authorities.

A few things to understand:

- We are not negotiating.
- We are not bluffing.
- Replying to this email will not help you.

This is a one-time offer. The clock is already running.

Do not make this difficult.
